The Capital Readiness Program is a comprehensive 6-week executive education accelerator aimed at providing small business owners with the tools and knowledge necessary for success in today's competitive marketplace.

The Capital Readiness Program, operated by the Capital Region Minority Supplier Development Council (CRMSDC), has partnered with the Bowie State University Campus (BSU) to offer 6 virtual webinars and sessions covering a wide range of topics.

New Knowledge Learning

Deep dive sessions with subject matter experts on access to capital, types and sources of debt, using debt to enhance profitability, and more.

New Tools & Resources

Select business-focused literature, technology tools, helpful resources and an expanded network of business professionals.

Certificate of Completion

Issued by BSU and CRMSDC to recognize participation and successful completion of 6 sessions.

ONLY 30 VIRTUAL SEATS AVAILABLE!

Register today before the class fills up.

Deadline to apply is Wednesday, June 3, 2026.

The Capital Readiness Incubator, including all fees and tools, are provided to participants at no cost.
